MANILA DELIVERS A FAMILY AFFAIR: THE SLIM EXPERIENCE WORLD TOUR GOES WITHOUT A HITCH, NEXT STOP SYDNEY

The core artists of Mecy Music Group took over the Philippines for a night the city will be talking about for a while — Slim touches down Down Under on October 18

The Slim Experience World Tour 2026 landed in Manila, and it went off without a hitch, start to finish. With the core artists signed to Mecy Music Group all on the bill, this stop had a different feel to it. It was a family affair, and it showed in every frame.

The behind-the-scenes told its own story. Princess, Nova Reign, and Korin Oluwa spent the days before the show sampling street food and working through the local bazaars, then took in the city from its highest point for a skyline most people only dream of. Meanwhile, Indhyrah, Slim, and Baby Chance linked up with a local guide for a walk through Manila's main square, getting a firsthand look at the historic artifacts that help tell the story of how the city became what it is today. And on the promo side, Robert "Bossman" Ross and Willow J hit the local airwaves to talk the tour and remind listeners that Manila sits among Slim's top three listening and streaming markets in the world, which made this stop a personal one for him.

Then the show itself delivered. Princess brought a flashdance-style performance that had the crowd locked in. Nova Reign followed with her record "Outside," an infectious, cathartic record about overcoming fear and finding yourself again. Korin Oluwa brought his authentic Yoruba, Lagos-inspired sound to life on "You Blow My Mind" featuring Nova Reign, weaving ancestral-themed choreography with a Caribbean-style groove that was something to witness. Slim closed the night with a medley of hits, opening with "TRUST" alongside a full choir and fire lighting up the stage, before bringing it home with his chart-topping single "Ten Toes Down," with the crowd singing every word back to him.

Manila is in the books, and the tour isn't slowing down. Next stop: Sydney, Australia, home of the Opera House, Bondi Beach, and some of the biggest festival energy on the planet. Slim performs live on October 18.
